CITIZENS' COMPLAINTS.

Meeting of Members of the "One Hun-Dr. Reylsurn presided at the meeting of the Citizens' Committee of One Hundred at Odeon Hill last night, and Richard Morsell acted as secretary. The topics under consideration were assessments of personal grievances against railroads, and charges

A new committee on asser taxation was named, as follows: Messrs. Weller, Walker, Morsell, Curriden, and

Dr. Alien.

A resolution was indorsed, which was recently passed by Citizens' Association No. 3, protesting against a funnel on Capitol Hill, or granting the right of way to railroads west of Fifteenth street east.

After the routine business of the meeting had been disposed of Dr. Alien and M. I. Weller unde addresses. Mr. Weller said that he had prepared and forwarded to the President a letter charging Commissioner Wheatley "with malfessance in office in allowing his brothers, who are his business partners, to become bondsmen for District contractors." The following committee was then appointed to call upon the President to-day for the purpose of consulting him regarding local officers: Messrs, Freuch, Stocking, Weller, Allen and Reyburn.

A Ruling as to Pensions. Commissioner Tanner of the Pension Bu cau, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, has issued the following ruling: Pursuant to the act of Congress approved March 1, 1889, whenever a pension certificate of any character, original, in-certificate of any character, original, increase, restoration, arrears or otherwise, shall have been issued by this Bureau, and the beneficiary mentioned therein is found to have died before payment, the amount due on said certificate to the date of said pensioner's death will be paid to the widow of such pensioner. If there be no widow then said amount will be paid to the minor child or children of said deceased pensioner. If there be neither widow nor minor children, then the amount due said deceased pensioner will, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, be paid to the executor or administrator of his estate. Minor children as contemplated by this set are minors recognized as such by the lex loci.

Many Religious Bequests. John Hoover's will was filed yesterday. Mr. Hoover was one of the oldest residents of the District, and the residue of his property, after the charitable bequests is paid goes to his beirs. Rudolph Eichhorn is named as executor. The will leaves $10,-000 for the use and benefit of St. Aloysius Church; $5,000 to the Sisters of Notre Church; $5,000 to the Sisters of Notre Dume; $5,000 to the Sisters of the Visitation, Mount de Sales, Baltimore; $300 a year each for ten years to St. Joseph's Male Orphan Asylum, the Sisters of the House of the Good Shepers, the Little Sisters of the Poor, and St. Ann's Infant Asylum; $300 annually for ten years toward creeting a new church in place of the present St. Mary's; $200 a year to Miss Mary Agnew of Maryland; $1,000 for masses for the repose of his soul; $100 for the benefit of St. Aloysius Parochial Schools for boys; $5,000 toward cost of completing the Church of St. Joseph, this city.

Wants It Plainly Stated. "The report that I resigned my position in the office of the Register of Wills," sail Mr. George E. Johnson, this morning, "is erroneous." Mr. Johnson was for many years Chief Clerk in the office, and since years Chief Clerk in the office, and since the new Administration commenced has been making a canvass for the office of Register of Wills. It is this fact, no doubt, which led to his leaving his old position. "I didn't resign," said Mr. Johnson. "I was dismissed. That is the plain truth of the matter, and I prefer to have the plain truth stated."

Mrs. Anna Buddington of 1362 Thirteenth street southeast, was fined $15 by Judge Miler yesterday for beating Ann Episcope three or four days ago. It was a sort of general scrimmage caused by bad feeling, which has existed between the two women for some time. A dainty red, white and blue baseball bat was Mrs. Buddington's weapon.
Miss Episcope was accused of flourishing a kuife, and her father sought the scene with an axe. An unwarry dalliance with the

No one who has used it doubts its superior qualities as a first-class tonic.

The Anthropological Society. At the meeting of the Anthropological Society last night Professor J. H. Gore read an account of the meeting of the German Anthropological Congress. "The Norman French Element in the English Language" was selected by Judge Arthur MacArthur as the theme for a very interesting discourse, in the course of which he drew attention to the many Norman phrases, with which the works of many of the best English writers from the time of Chaucer to the present day were enriched.

Mile. Rhea at the Holliday-street Theatre. Saltimore, last night, did what is seldom lone in our neighbor town, to wit.: Brought out a new play. It was "The Case Vidat," by Stuart Isham, a romantic young journal-ist of Detroit, and it is a French story from ist of Detroit, and it is a French story from the same source whence comes Sardou's "Fedora." For a first night the play went with remarkable smoothness, and every character from Mile. Rhea to the property

Mr. Waymess Henderson, gray-mouached and jovial, is already in Washing ton making preparations for the grea "Crystal Slipper," which is to appear a the National next week. A typical Chi-cagoan is Mr. Henderson, known to most people from that city, and they catch his hand on the street eagerly and proceed to compare notes and ask him what he thinks of the election there. Mr. Henderson smiles and doesn't commit himself. Too wise a manuger is he to mingle polities and business.

Lectures on American History. The professors of the Johns Hopkins University are delivering a series of lectures on American history before the teachers of the Washington public schools. Both the the Washington public schools. Both the white and colored teachers attend, and there is a good deal of dissatisfaction among the former, who complain that the latter occupy seats next them at the lectures. This promises to break up the lectures as far as the white teachers are concerned. To a reporter Superintendent Powell said that it couldn't be helped, that the attendance of any one was not compulsory, and that it was necessary in the interest of harmony that both races should attend the teachers' meetings.

LATEST "NOVELTIES" IN JEWELRY. Our Jewelry Department is but a few months old, yet it now ranks well with some of the oldest in the store. There is but one conclusion to be drawn from this. We were fortunate enough to secure the exclusive Washington agency of one of the largest manufacturers in this country, and are in consequence enabled to quote prices considerably lower than would otherwise be possible. The various designs and shapes are actual reproductions of the solid gold jewelry, and in addition we show a vast number of exclusively original designs and shapes not to be found elsewhere.

Particular attention is called to the Enameled Jewelry and Real Enamel Brocches, etc. The enamel is made from various kinds of sand and the oxides of different metals. These are carefully prepared and burnished by fire, giving them a brillantly polished auriace and great durability. The newest designs represent the various flowers, such as violets, daisles, hartsease, etc. Prices $1.05, 1.25, 51.05, 51.75, 52, 52.55, 52.50, 52.75, 53, 53.55, 53.5

Not only do we show the prettiest and best in Domestic Plated Jewelry, but we have secured a great many pieces of Imported Rolled Plate Jewelry and a number of Solid Gold Pieces: Scarf Pins, Brooches, Bracelets, Ornaments, Finger Rings, Watch Chains and Fobs, Chatelaines, Earrings, Clocks, etc.

Bracelets, 15c to $25. Elegant line from $12 to $25.
